

CERAMICS Breckenridge

Colorado Mountain College offers a two-year degree program in Fine Arts with an emphasis on Ceramics. Students may register for individual classes (which will be listed in regular summer quarter bulletin) and workshops such as those listed below, or enroll in the degree program.

July 9 - 20 SALT KILN BUILDING Staff

3 credits

July 9 - 20 HANDBUILT CERAMICS Dennis Clive

3 credits

PRIMITIVE CERAMIC WORKSHOP Alan Bell

3 credits

WRITER'S WORKSHOP Copper Mountain

August 4 - 11

3 credits

Copper Mountain resort will host the third annual Writer's Workshop which will bring together working writers and specialists in an informal workshop/seminar format. These writers will work with students, and lecture on particular approaches to contemporary literature. Visiting faculty will include:

I. WILLIAM BERRY - "Getting your work published"

BOB HOLLINGSWORTH - "Newswriting"

ALLEN GINSBERG - "Poetry Reading"

ABBY RAND - "Travel and Feature Writing"

ROBERT J. PUGEL - "Poetry"

RICHARD PRICE - "Novels"

ALTERNATIVES... Man, Health and Environment

Copper Mountain

July 6, 7, 8

1.5 credits

This intensive 2½ day seminar is intended to explore alternatives to conventional health care and traditional means of becoming a healthier and happier "Whole Person". Seminars and workshops will center on holistic health, meditation, and mind-body integration. This seminar will be held high atop Copper Mountain at 'Solitude Station'. Some of the lecture topics and guest speakers are:

