

Language

Let's meet at the apex of this bridge
Each with the lexicon of our language
The gravitons pull to a critical translation
Of your sounds which cause aural elation
For the visceral syntax of the trance of my dance.
In your message I have found
Speaking tongues is unbound
For this climax you have bound
To my body with composure,
Bass-ic grammar
Urges me to take a chance, take a gander
At the linkage 'tween language of composer and of dancer
