THREE WIRE WINTER NEWSLETTER

THREE WIRE WINTER is into its 10th year and we're working HARD on our 20th issue. Since this is a special anniversary issue it is going to be larger and harder to produce. We hope to have this issue published in the spring of 1985.

Our magazine was named from an expression indicating that the winter's snow was as high as the "third wire" on the barbed-wire fences. The magazine is put together by Steamboat Springs High School students. Articles and photographs are of various natures but all concern the Routt County area and Northwestern Colorado. In our 20th issue we will have stories on: Albert Hitchens, whose ranch is the oldest ranch family of Routt County, Art Maijala, who owns the saw mill in Yampa, John Fetcher, who helped get skiing started in Steamboat, Lloyd Monger and his lower Elk River ranch, the Railroad, Yampa Valley Electric and how electricity got to our part of the state. These are just some of the stories you can read in our next issue.

With a small class this year it has been hard to raise the $3,500 needed to print our 20th issue. THREE WIRE WINTER strives to keep a steady price of $2.50 per issue. We need the help of our readers, otherwise we will not be able to continue the project.

Below you will find a subscription form. Even if you already have a subscription, think about giving a gift subscription to a friend or a relative. FILL IT OUT TODAY! Don't miss the coming issues. We believe we have a unique project and want to thank you again for your interest.
