

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Dear Cindy and Staff:

Thank you so much for the THREE WIRE WINTER books. They are so nice, and I hope this project will last a long time as there are still many interesting people in Routt County to tell their stories. Keep up the good work.

Dear Sirs:

Sincerely,
Lorraine More

We received the fourth issue, and we enjoyed it so much. I hope to get every one, we enjoy the magazines so much. Keep up the good work, I think it is a wonderful thing you are doing. I know the old timers in Routt County are pleased to be recognized like this.

Thank you much,
Mrs. O.C. Ingersoll

Editor, Three Wire Winter:

May I take this opportunity to tell you that I eagerly await my copy and read it from cover to cover, then I save them. Who knows? One day I may make some sauerkraut like Mr. Phillips does, or I may make a quilt. In every way it brings Colorado closer to me, and I do not feel so far away.

Continued success!

I am gratefully yours,
Mary Avery Murphey

Dear Folks:

I've tried for weeks to get this to you but I have been so darn busy! Are you keeping busy? I hope so. No one enjoys your books like I do. So many of your stories take me back so far so fast. You see, I am 69 years old. Keep up the good work, and good luck!

Let me here from you soon,
Veneta Bysom

It was good of you to remember me in such a thoughtful way. I am pleased by your kindness and send you my best wishes.

Dear Sirs:

Jimmy Carter

While on a vacation in Colorado several weeks ago, I stopped in at a health food store in Steamboat Springs and happened across your charming magazine. Unfortunately I was traveling on a small budget and could not afford to pick up a copy of THREE WIRE WINTER, and I thought perhaps you could send me the last four issues you have published.

I plan to do a travel story about my vacation in Colorado, and plan to use THREE WIRE WINTER not directly, but for help in establishing the right sort of atmosphere in the story. I think it's admirable what you're doing with the magazine, as so much marvelous folklore and grassroots experience tends to be lost when older folks in a community pass on.

Dear Three Wire Winter:

Many thanks,
Dave Stearns

I would like to congratulate the staff and the sponsors of THREE WIRE WINTER. I enjoy it very much, and believe that it is an excellent school project. I feel sure that these magazines will be enjoyed for many years. Thank you for enjoyable reading and helping to preserve your community.
